Monton, Greater Manchester – May 2025

What do you do when the choir you're dreaming of doesn't exist? You build it.

That's exactly what happened in Monton earlier this year, when a group of friends decided to create something special: a place where singing feels soulful, social, and truly alive. The result is Vocal Sounds—a locally grown choir with a big heart and even bigger harmonies.

At Vocal Sounds, there are no auditions required, no backing tracks, and no pressure. Just real voices, real piano, and a welcoming space where singing feels genuine, relaxed, and joyful.

Led by award-winning mezzo-soprano Siân Davies, whose performance history includes the BBC Proms and Buxton Festival, and supported by professional pianist Helen Whitehead, the choir blends musical quality with feel-good energy. Whether you're a confident singer or just discovering your voice, Vocal Sounds makes space for you to grow and belong.

With a modern repertoire that spans gospel, pop, musical theatre, classical, traditional choral and more, Vocal Sounds is all about fresh sounds and timeless joy. Their story is already catching attention—with features on BBC Radio Manchester, BBC Radio Berkshire, and Salford Now.
